

A CANTERBURY TALE

Albert Figg and the Battle for Hill 112

International Indiefest Award winning Film A Canterbury Tale – Veterans tell the story of one of the most crucial and costly battles of WW2 in the weeks after D Day when the Allied liberation of Europe was in the balance. It also tells of the determination of Albert Figg from Canterbury Kent that the names of the 7,000 men who died on the hill should never be forgotten.

THE DUKE OF YORK'S MILITARY SCHOOL

FRIDAY 17TH JANUARY 2025 | 7.00PM

A DONATION
FOR ENTRY
£10
£2 FOR STUDENTS

ALL PROCEEDS TOWARDS THE HILL 112 MEMORIAL FOUNDATION REG. CHARITY NO: 11181345

PLEASE CONTACT WWW.THEHILL112.COM TO MAKE YOUR SEAT RESERVATION OR ANNETTE OLIVER 07540 274683